

The pianist Giovanna Conti enchants Germany

The Italian pianist Giovanna Conti opened the « Archaic Melodies Festival » in Erlangen, Germany. An audience coming from all over Europe joined the concert. The artist, who lives in the little village of Cereseto, between Compiano and Bardi, played Liszt, Chopin and Bach in a piano recital, also performing Haydn, Mozart and Debussy with the Austrian flutist Lucia Klonner. Giovanna Conti announced the coming publication of her essay in German language, « Für Eine Sinnvolle Biologische Musik » and a new concert tour in Europe.
